AMUSEMENTS

New Lyric.

Selwyn & Co., one of the most active firms of producing managers in the theatrical world at present, will present for Three," at the Lyric on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, with malinees on Christmas and Saturday.

"Tea for Three," has been running at Maxine Elliott's theater, New York, Selwyn & Co. have prepared a most effective setting for the play and have assembled a cast of rare excellence.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR

New Elixir, Called Aspironal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter If Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the dyug trade is Aspironal, the two minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried. All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new clixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teappoonfuls with four teaspoonfuls of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you triry it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and bables, for Aspironal is by far the safeet and most effective, the calcent to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for lufants and children.

Moving Pictures

Majestic.

Dorothy Dalton is the attraction at he Majestic theater for the first part of the week, her latest production being 'His Wife's Friend.' Owing to unavoldable circumstances attendant upon transportation. Charles Ray's latest comedy drams, "Red Hot Dollars," did comedy drams. "Red Hot Dollars," did not agrive in time for showing Sunday, and Miss Dalton's new picture, which was to have been shown this month, was substituted.

In "His Wife's Friend," Miss Dalton is found cast in a role admirably suited to her talents and the story is one of the games of chees, life, love and intrigue cleverly interwoven into one story. The engagement will conclude Wednesday night.

The bill opening at the Orpheum Monday is a typical holiday one. "Putting it Over," a "he" musical comedy, has been awarded the stellar honors. "Putting it Over" is taken from two musical shows. "You Know Me Al" and "Let's Beat it." produced by the 27th division.

Orpheum.

Loew's Lyceum.

Music and dancing prevail in an appropriate holiday bill at Loew's not greatly above average for this house.

Three sixters, comely maidens, and Walters and Walters, ventriloquial artists, head the show. Powell and Worth have a unique blackface act that is original and pleasing.

"Uncle Lem's dilemma," a rural skit, is not as well appreciated here as permaps farther north. Russel and Devitt onen with a dancing sci

SHOOTING ON GAYOSO

Sunday was field day of the open season on Gayose avenue, with negroes for targets. John Brothers, 2114, Gayose, was shot through the leg and hand by James Wright, 361 Turley street, when they quarreled about money which Brothers claimed Wright owed him. Wright was arrested Monday by Emergency Policemen Brunner, Jr., and Pryde, an charges of shooting with intent to kill and carrying a pistol. Fred Walker, 275 Gayose, owes his life to the fact that his wife, Jessie, is a mighty poor pistol shot. Jessie fived five times point blank at Fred, in their combination kitchen-library-bedroom. One shot struck Fred in the shoulder, the others dented the walls. Fred said the shooting was c-used when he announced his intention of going down to the river. Jessie escape.

SOUNDS HOME LIKE;

it Over, "a "he" musical comedy, has been awarded the stellar hoffors. "Putting It Over" is taken from two musical shows. "You Know &te Al" and "Let's Beat It" produced by the 27th division, condensed into one big musical act. The well-known and popular couple, T. Roy Barnes and Bessie Crawford, will be an added feature. There are a few comedians with their rapid fire. Mr. Barnes has just been the featured comedian with the musical comedy "Over the Top." When it was decided to take the piece out of New York he left the cast and returned to vaudeville. Barnes is a natural comedian and in his hands any offering would be furnay.

Herbert Ashley, assisted by Roy Dietrich, has a side-splitting talking skit called "An Unusual Conversation."

Foley and O'Neil are a couple of niffles who do a bit of eccentric dancing that is a revelation. The Transfield staters in "Musicali Moments," will furnish one of the musical treats of the bill. The Vivians, Harry and Ada, are the world's champion sharpshooters. They have just returned from a tour around the world. Bob Tup and company are tumblers and athletes. Topics of the Day and Kinograms round out an ideal holiday offering. Strand.

Mary Pickford in the third release from her own studies, "Heart O' the Hills," which delighted capacity audiences at the Strand theater Sunday, blds fair to establish new attendance record during the week.

This production shows Mary as she has never been seen before. A mountain girl, afficted with a harsh mother, she determines to issue an ultimatum proclaiming that all future hickory stick lickings shall be abandoned, that she will "get" the man who murdered her father, and that no lowland aristocrats shall encroach upon the ancestral Hawn holdings.

Aside from her serious side in life, Mavis has a sweetheart who balts her hook, escorts her to the "shindigs" and makes love to her in spare hours. The picture is cram-full of Pickfordisms and just the sert of a story the thousands of Pickford fans like to see Mary in: Strand.

Princess.

"The Right to Lie." the seven-part special feature produced by Albert Capellani and bringing Dolores Cassinelli to the Princess theater today and Tuesday, was adapted for the screen from Jane Murfin's story of John Wormwood. The story is based on an international romance in which a celebrated Italian beauty marries a wealthy American, only to have her life blighted by a series of incidents which eventually give her the "right to lie."

NEW ELECTRIC LIGHT -

LONDON, Dec. 22—A light which far surpasses any existing arrangement of artificial light and is the closest approximation to actual daylight ever accomplished, is understood by the American Chamber of Commerce in London to have been perfected here.

The apparatus consists of a high-power electric light built fitted with a cup-shaped opaque reflector, the silvered inner side of which reflects the light against a parasol-shaped screen blaced above the light. The screen is lined with small patches of different colors, arranged according to a formula worked out empirically by Mr. Shering, ham, the inventor.

The light thrown down from the screen is said to show colors almost as well as in full daylight. The American chamber says a great future is expected for this invention in such cases as the lighting of show windows and art galleries, studio work of all kinds, dye works, tea and tobacco blending, and many other industries. Color photography also will probably benefit. LONDON, Dec. 22 -A light which far
